RIS –Curriculum

Drama - "The field that drama can explore is as wide as life itself ..."

Drama learning is easiest to assess when the students are participating in dramatic activities and so one of the main strategies of assessment will be teacher observation of student performance. Every time a student is performing, creating or reflecting on a drama performance.

برنامج التمثيل (دراما) :

الهدف منه تدريب الأطفال على الجرأة و مواجهة الجمهور و التعبير عن النفس بطلاقة و اكتساب مهارات التواصل المختلفة.

The six Transdisciplinary Themes are

Where We Are In Place and Time?	Who We Are?	How the World Works?	How We Organize Ourselves?	How We Express Ourselves?	Sharing the Planet
An inquiry into orientation in place and time; personal histories; homes and journeys; the discoveries, explorations and migrations of humankind; the relationships between and the interconnectedness of individuals and civilizations, from local and global perspectives.	An inquiry into the nature of the self; beliefs and values; personal, physical, mental, social and spiritual health; human relationships including families, friends, communities, cultures, rights and responsibilities; what it means to be a human.	An inquiry into the natural world and its laws; the interaction between the natural world (physical and biological) and human societies; how humans use their understanding of scientific principles; the impact of scientific and technological advances on society and on the environment.	An inquiry into the interconnectedness of human-made systems and communities; the structure and function of organizations; societal decision-making; economic activities and their impact on humankind and the environment.	An inquiry into the ways in which we discover and express ideas, feelings, nature, culture, beliefs and values; the ways in which we reflect on, extend and enjoy our creativity; our appreciation of the aesthetic.	An inquiry into rights and responsibilities in the struggle to share finite resources with other people and with other living things; communities and the relationships within and between them; access to equal opportunities; peace and conflict resolution.
